Our team ensures on time compliance with all relevant statutory laws that are applicable to your business.

We work with all the top accounting technologies

Financial Management

Running out of capital is the second biggest reason why most businesses fail. The primary role of a chief financial officer in any organization is to oversee the financial management function, maintain and report on the financial activities of the business.

Our expert CFOs help you manage funds to ensure that your working capital levels are optimally managed.

More specifically, these include:

- Cash flow management
- Receivable management
- Payable and vendors
- Fund management
- Treasury operations

If you feel stressed out by looking at numbers, and spreadsheets, there's a good chance that it is the right time to outsource your finance department. Our CFO services take the stress out of the finance function, so that you can focus on what you do best – scaling up your business for growth!

“ KayOne Consulting brings a true partnership approach to the relationship and the founders consider them as a part of our leadership team. ”

Budgeting and Controls

Budgetary controls are one of the most commonly used checks put in place to ensure that your business is not spending more than what it is supposed to. The objective is to give you enough leeway such that you can capitalize on any opportunities that emerge and focus on growth.

More specifically, these include:

- P&L budgets
- Cash flow budgets
- Cost sheet variance
- Group level budgets
- Variance analysis

We are with you on every step of your growth journey, starting the day you make the switch from spreadsheets to any accounting software. Our data-driven inputs for your business help you take quick and meaningful decisions, to make you look the smart person that you are.

Transactional Support

Our transactional support services provides you with traditional accounting services such as month-end financial statements, bank reconciliation, and management reporting.

We're not just a team of bookkeepers and accountants. Our team goes beyond the traditional day-to-day bookkeeping by laying a solid foundation to help your business grow to the next level.

More specifically, these include:

- Month-end closing
- Reconciliations
- Transactional entries
- Financial statements
- Management reporting

Our work involves highly sensitive matters that go to the heart of our clients' ability to compete. We always treat everything that we learn about our clients' businesses as strictly confidential. We provide a comprehensive confidentiality agreement as part of every engagement.

What they say

We have been using KayOne Consulting's CFO services for over 3 years now, and they have been our true finance partner, helping us grow our operations by 5X since they came on board. They bring a true partnership approach to the relationship and the founders consider them as a part of our leadership team.

They helped us reboot our accounting processes, redefine our legal contracts, manage our collections and setup 3 international subsidiaries.

Start-ups are right up their alley – they also assisted us in 4 rounds of venture funding (equity and debt), through their excellent understanding of SaaS intricacies, including global/multi-company operations. The founders have totally entrusted our finance (not just accounting) woes to them!

Amit Gandhi
CEO, Novelvox

KayOne Consulting and their team have done an excellent job in putting various accounting, finance, compliance processes and MIS in place that has helped us in running the company more efficiently.

Their team of CFOs also helped us structure our company and prepare for various capital raising rounds. Their extensive knowledge on other subjects like legal, valuation, due diligence is highly commendable and added a lot of value in the whole process.

The team's dedication, knowledge and expertise in the field is highly remarkable.

We are glad to have worked with KayOne Consulting and their team of Virtual CFOs and wish you all the best for future endeavors.
